FACULTY AND STUDENT COMMITTEES FORMED TO ATTACK CHEATING

By DAVE LEONARD

The emergency meeting held yesterday afternoon between President T. W. MacQuarrie and the faculty heads resulted in the formation of a committee whose duty will be to investigate and attempt to curb the present problems of dishonesty of some students in taking examinations.

"We shall make it a matter of major concern," the president declared. "In addition to the faculty committee, I will ask the Student Council to cooperate in forming a committee of students, and the two committees will work in conjunction. Any student who feels that there is a leak somewhere in the class should report to one of the committees and an investigation of accusations will ensue."

"It was a general feeling of the group," said Dr. MacQuarrie, "in consideration of the honest students, that we should crack down hard on every case we find."

The committee investigations will apply not only to examinations, but to term papers and compositions as well, according to the president's statement.

A possible solution was mentioned in the filing of all past examinations to be available to all students, but many of the group voiced their disapproval and it was shelved for the time being.

Frosh Presented Traditional Plaque

Len Frizzi, mixer chairman, appeared at freshman orientation yesterday and presented the frosh with the traditional plaque, symbolic of their winning the annual fall mixer.

Mr. Milton Lanyon, freshman class advisor, accepted on behalf of the frosh.

The freshmen won the belated tug-of-war Tuesday to clinch the mixer. Other events were cancelled because of rain and will not be run off because the frosh had already won enough events to make a sophomore victory impossible.

GALA FESTIVITIES PLANNED BY AWS

"Games, entertainment, food 'n' fun, all for ten cents, are to be found at the AWS 'Harum Scaram' jinx, November 13 in the Women's gym from 7 p.m. until 10," announces Virginia Luke, AWS publicity chairman.

Miss Luke issued an invitation to all girls to bring their girl friends, and asked that they all wear old clothes. Tickets go on sale today under the library arch, says Miss Luke.

Journalism Majors Invited To Dance

Vern Baker, "30" club president, invites all journalism, advertising, and photography majors to a dance tomorrow evening from 8 to 12 in the Student Union.

"The dance is free and we suggest members bring their friends along," says Baker.

"Refreshments will be served," he states.

Baker adds that, "After Saturday night, membership in the club will be by invitation only. If you can't make it to the dance, be sure to sign up for membership at the library arch today."

GOBBLE WOBBLE SCHEDULED MONDAY NIGHT

"Hobble over to the 'Gobble Wobble' Monday night, you upper classmen for the Junior-Senior mixer," urge George Guntér and Sal Millan, mixer chairmen.

Some lucky senior or junior will take home his Thanksgiving turkey. The door prize of the evening will be a dressed turkey, courtesy of butcher Joe Hall, who is located at Hanrahan's market, 314 E. Santa Clara, according to Bill Ellsworth, senior council member.

"Not only will the winner receive the turkey, but the bird will be stuffed and roasted to his specifications by the head chef of the Hotel De Anza," continues Ellsworth.

"The mixer will be held in the Women's gym from 10 to 1 with music for dancing provided by Tommy Pratt's band. Attendance at the mixer will be the determining factor in the winning of the affair."

According to Guntér, the mixer is free to upper classmen with ASB cards. The mixer committee includes Bill Ellsworth, Bobbie Rodenborn, Frank Hearne, Rose Marie Lewis, Eleanor Freitas, Ruth Wileman, Ella Bea German, Fred Menske, Trout Enos, Bobbie Hill, Bob Sampson, Bob Culp, and Winena Lyon.

CHINESE OFFICIAL, POLICE STUDENT, ATTENDS MEET

Lee Kaun-lu, prominent Chinese official and now a police student at San Jose State college, will be present at the International Relations conference to be held here November 14, according to Dr. George Bruntz, faculty adviser of the local IRC group.

He will participate in the panel which discusses the Chinese Civil War as a guest of Moderator William D. Shepherd. Lee Kaun-lu was a chief of police in China and supervised over 1000 policemen. Pending the decision of the Chinese Embassy to send a representative to the panel, Lee has agreed to give the Kuomintang side of the Civil War.

Lee is an honor graduate of the Chinese Police Academy at Nanking. Former Chief of Police Lee personally knows many prominent Chinese officials in the National government including Chiang Kai Shek, present head of the government.

JOURNALISTS

The Spartan Daily moves into new barracks quarters today, announces Dwight Bentel, Journalism department director.

Thrust and Parries and announcements may be dropped in the contributions box in room 17 until Monday.

GAY FIESTA SCHEDULED TONIGHT

"La Fiesta" is the time of gaiety, and perhaps the gayest Fiesta north of the border will be seen in the Men's gym tonight from 8 to 12 when the Kappa society holds its annual Kappa Karnival, according to Pat Griffin, general chairman.

Given as a benefit for the McFadden Health Cottage, all proceeds of the Karnival will be turned over to Miss Margaret Twombly, head of the Health department, to buy needed supplies for the Cottage.

Tickets will be sold today in the Library archway, and also will be sold at the door tonight, announces Nancy Talbot, publicity chairman. The admission price will be 14 cents.

Karnival booths sponsored by on-campus fraternities, will offer a variety of concessions to test the skill of San Jose seniors and senioritas at "La Fiesta." Kenny Cyocca is to act as master of ceremonies at the entertainment intermission. A variety program is scheduled with singing star Jimmy Borba, and Nadine Jansen, in her dual role of piano and trumpet player, being featured.

Tortillas and beans will be served in the dimly lighted small gym at tables decorated with bright cloths and wax-dripped bottles. Near the cocina, or Spanish kitchen, there will be dancing to off-the-record music.

LUCKY READER GETS FREE BID

One $2.40 bid to the Chapel Ball will be given away free every day next week to the lucky Spartan who picks up the Spartan Daily with a card attached, according to Jack Marciplan, chairman of the affair.

The person getting the card may take it to the booth in the Library arch and receive his free bid to the annual Moonlight Chapel Ball dance to be held November 15 in the Civic auditorium.

Ray Hackett and his orchestra from the Mark Hopkins Hotel will play for the affair. Since the affair is a benefit ball, Hackett has cut his usual price of $1000 to $500.

One dollar from each bid will go to the Chapel fund, until all expenses are paid, then all proceeds will go to the fund, Marciplan states. Last year $600 in proceeds from the Chapel Ball was donated to the fund.

Miss Helen Dimmick, dean of women, said in reference to the Chapel Ball, "Dances of the quality of the Chapel Ball are a definite asset to the Memorial Chapel Fund Drive."

FASHION TEA BIDS

Bids for the Allentian Fashion Tea to be held on Sunday, November 23, are now on sale, announces Monie Wishart, bid chairman. They may be obtained from Allentian members.

The fashion show will feature models from the campus sororities. Clothes will be supplied by local merchants.

According to Chairman Peggy Carter, the theme will center around a Parisian cafe. Colleen Montgomery is planning decorations.

SPARTANS GIVEN EVEN CHANCE AGAINST COUGARS TOMORROW

By TOM ROWEN

Spartan Daily Sports Editor

San Jose State college's injury-riddled football team entrained last night for Salt Lake City, Utah, to keep a Saturday afternoon engagement with Brigham Young university at Provo, Utah. The Spartans arrive in Salt Lake tonight and will stay there until tomorrow noon when they will go to Provo.

The Cougars lost their last game to Denver university, 20-6. They have won two games and lost four for their season's record. BYU is rated as one of the best passing teams in the nation. However, Rex Olsen, ace passer, completed only 4 for 13 against Denver.

San Jose will enter the game no better than an even-money choice because of the plague of injuries that have the Gold and White varsity. Staying at home this week are Chuck Storey, Jake Kakuuchi, Bob Mandemaker, Fred Mangini, and Bob Voris. Bob Covey replaced Voris on the traveling squad.

BYU and San Jose began their rivalry last year when the Spartans downed the Cougar team, 14-0. Earlier this season, BYU had little trouble defeating Utah State, 26-13. This was the team that San Jose scored only 20 points against in the Raisin Bowl.

Coach Bill Hubbard probably will open with Mel Stein and Herm Knupper, ends; Val Marchi and Jack Faulk, tackles; Joe Julliano and Chuck Blackwell, guards; Bob Pifferini, center; Jim Jackson, quarterback; Billy Parton and Billy Elam, halfbacks; and Pete Denevi or Jack Donaldson, fullback.

The game will be played in sub-zero weather. Weather reports received early this morning indicate the temperature is hovering around the near-zero mark. The Spartans should be used to adverse weather conditions after the San Diego State game that was played in a fog-shrouded field.

VIOLET THOMAS FEATURED IN RECITAL TONIGHT

Miss Violet Thomas, pianist, will be featured tonight in a faculty recital in the Little Theater at 8:15 p.m., according to the Music department.

This is the second in a series of three faculty recitals to be presented this quarter. For her program, Miss Thomas has selected numbers from both classic and modern composers.

Miss Thomas graduated from San Jose State college in 1938. Since then she has studied at the American Conservatory of Music, Chicago, Illinois, and with Teneare Morgan and Bernard Abranewitsch in California. From 1943-45 she served in the WAVES as a link trainer instructor. After her discharge in 1945, she came to San Jose State college to teach piano.

Program: Thirty-Two Variations in C Minor, Beethoven; Sonata, Opus 5, F Minor, Brahms, Allegro Maestoso, Andante, Scherzo, Intermezzo, Finale; Feuilles Motes, Debussy; Ondine, Debussy; Suite for Piano, Opus 14, Bartok, Allegretto, Scherzo, Allegro Molto, Sostenuto; Polonaise No. 2 in E Major, Liszt.

The final faculty recital will present Miss Maurine Thompson, contralto, Saturday, November 15, at 8:15 p.m. in the Little Theater.

G-I-L-L-E-N

The director of the band is one of the most unhappy men on campus today. Everyone wants to spell his name with a new twist. He has had a different name, because of misspelling, practically every time some affair comes up which prints his name along with his marching band, even on official posters about campus.

"Please, please," quoth Jim, "let me be 'Jim Gillen' just once—officially!"

On record as of today: one Jim Gillen, officially.

RETREAT SIGN-UP CLOSES TODAY

"Today is the last chance to sign up for the Student Y retreat to be held at the Boulder Creek Y camp," announces Bill Dunlavy, co-chairman for the affair.

According to Dunlavy, the retreat will be held Saturday and Sunday and will feature varied entertainments.

Sign-up and payment may be made at the Y office any time today before 5 p.m. said Dunlavy. Departure is scheduled for 9 a.m. Saturday, from in front of the Y office at 220 S. 7th street.

SJS GOES OVER TOP

San Jose State college's Community Chest drive has gone over the top with $6409.58, or 101.6 per cent of the $6300 goal. This was announced yesterday noon at a San Jose Community Chest Drive personnel banquet which officially marked the end of the city campaign.

Patricia Polk, on-campus campaign chairman, was presented an award of merit for her work in putting this college over its goal. Louis Rossi, head of the San Jose Chest drive, who officiated at the luncheon, personally commended her work here.

The city of San Jose has made a good showing in the campaign by attaining 91.9 per cent of its goal, and more funds are anticipated before the books are closed. San Jose leads in competition with Berkeley, Fresno, and Stockton.

Accompanying Miss Polk to the luncheon, which was held at the CWC, and also representing the college were Phil Robertson, Tom Wall, and Jack Silvey. Host for the luncheon was the San Jose Realty Board.

BLUE CARD BLUES

Blue Card Blues—most popular theme song for the forthcoming week, is being unearthed for a new release. Petrillo's ban notwithstanding.

Yes sir, the Registrar has announced that mailing of those coveted blue slips will take place Wednesday. That leaves just three days in which to drown your sorrows while anticipating the happy arrival.

One way of passing the time is to start a few small wagers about who will receive the most Registrar souvenirs. This practice will buy either extra coffee, or leave you flat broke. If the latter is the case, frame the blue card as a memento to your good fortune.

It is too late for cramming to stall off this quarterly message from the Administration. It isn't too late, however, to hit those books for a recovery of grade status. Good hard work from now on can put you on grade pay dirt.

For the present, though, grit your teeth and turn on that Pepsi. Warm up those vocal chords and take a note from Glassman. The Blues are soon to arrive.

U. S. STUDENTS CONCEIVE IDEA OF NSA AT PRAGUE MEET

By JACK SILVEY

(This is the first in a series of Spartan Daily articles designed to acquaint students with the National Student association).

Should the students of San Jose State college affiliate with the National Student association? This question has been the subject of much discussion at Student Council meetings this quarter.

When it became apparent that whole-hearted agreement for or against affiliation with NSA could not be reached, the Council voted to postpone the issue until May 17. Purpose of this action was to allow adequate time for students to acquaint themselves with NSA and to form opinions relative to the question.

WORLD CONFERENCE

As the name indicates, NSA is a nationwide student organization seeking to gain recognition on all U. S. campuses. The organization was conceived by 25 American students who were delegates at the World Student Conference held at Prague in August, 1946.

The delegates, representing various student groups and colleges, were impressed by the national student organizations of Finland, France, Sweden, Britain, and Czechoslovakia.

CHICAGO CONFERENCE

They concluded that without some similar organization in this country, U. S. students would be handicapped in participating in world-wide student affairs. The 25 delegates were instrumental in calling a national student conference which met at Chicago in December, 1946. Representatives from more than 300 colleges and numerous student organizations gathered to discuss organization and aims of the proposed NSA. Sal Millan and Bill McFarland represented this college at the conference.

CONSTITUTION DRAFTED

Activities at the conference resulted in the drafting of a constitution, which was later ratified at an NSA convention meeting in Madison, Wisconsin last September. Rhoda Andersen and Bill Swasey represented San Jose State college at this gathering.

The convention officially established NSA as a national student group, and opened way for its affiliation with colleges and universities throughout the land.

I SHOCK 'EM, YOU CATCH 'EM

Deane Healey's automatic-electrical "I shock 'em, you catch 'em" worm-obtaining machine failed to work for Dr. Robert D. Rhodes' 9:30 Tuesday-Thursday Biology 20 class this week.

The good doctor needed a variety of Annelids known as "earthworms" for laboratory study. Deane Healey insisted that if "Doc" Rhodes would get a storage battery and two pieces of metal, he, the student actor, could shock 'em out of the ground.

Dr. Rhodes reports that either the device is a farce or SJS worms are too educated. A shovel finally was called in.

Russel Phillips is the only gridder on Bud Winter's freshman football team who comes from Brentwood, California.

Russel, 180 lb. fullback, wants to be a civil engineer when he graduates from college.

WE'RE FOR RON

Dear Thrust and Parry:

I, like Ron LaMar, did not see the COP rally that we took to their campus. However, why isn't he entitled to state his opinion without having the wrath of the school turned on him?

I heard many disparaging remarks about that rally too, and I think Ron has many colleagues who believe as he does about it.

I also heard that the rally brought to our campus was quite distasteful, but is that any reason why we should show that San Jose State is as rude and as lacking in school spirit as COP?

—Patt Frantz

WAXING LITERARY

Dear Thrust and Parry:

Dedication to our fellow Ecclesiastics and Prudes of San Jose State.

Our deepest and most profound sympathies are certainly with Ronald LaMar. We who have journeyed to this fair mecca of spiritual and Theological learning find it hard to conceive of the bawdy and lewd lasciviousness so apparent in such academic institutions as the exchange rally recently experienced with our communal brethren of the seminary at Stockton.

This brings to mind an incident of a short time ago wherein my pious companion and I were wandering through these hallowed halls of our beloved alma mater. We heard a poor unfortunate using a most blasphemous and coarse brand of vulgarity. Accosting this misled fellow, we attempted to show his confused mind the ways of salvation. As a reward for our Samaritan efforts we received an emphatic and terse "Oh Smut."

Our felicitations, Brother Ronnie, and we look forward to a convivial exchange of philosophies over a stiff shot of homogenized milk at WCTU headquarters.

Ben Harpole and Mike Thomas

WHEW!

Dear Thrust and Parry, Ray Bishop and Phil Curtis:

Your scathing remarks berating Ron LaMar, a young man who is courageous enough to stand up for his convictions, strike me as being so completely asinine, that they are hardly worth noticing except for this one point; FRIENDS, A SENSE OF DECENCY IS NOT A SIGN OF IMMATURITY IN EITHER AGE OR MENTALITY.

THRUST AND PARRY

Rather, it is more typical of the juvenile mind to regard something as funny simply because it is smutty, which seems to be the prevailing attitude of our Rally committee.

The rally at COP was neither in good taste nor was it particularly amusing. Since Ron LaMar felt that way also, none of your adolescent ravings can change his mind or the minds of those who agree with him.

So why not either forget it, or else present a rally which would be more representative of the Student Body rather than the cute ideas of a few jokers on the Rally committee?

Speaking of the Rally committee, might I also suggest that it is hardly becoming to see the bottle passed so freely at the football games? It is slightly disillusioning, to say the least, to observe the so-called "big wheels" on this campus, such as (names withheld) guzzling liquor with all the abandon of North Market street bums.

As the Rally committee is theoretically an example of our Student Body at the games, I suggest that it would present a better picture of our school to visitors and friends if it could wait until after the game to become polluted in private.

Personally, I am ashamed to be represented by them.

—ASB 5356

Dear Thrust and Parry:

During a mid-term exam (1/2 of grade) two carpenters, armed with planes, saws, and loud voices, were allowed to install a door.

At the end of the hour, the instructor remarked that "slight" disturbances are sometimes beneficial.

As college students we are reminded constantly to act as adults. Do you think this professor showed maturity when he laughed at the class's predicament?

Frankly, we wonder.

—ASB 3848, 1342

WEST WILL SPEND WEEK IN SEATTLE

Registrar Joe West said yesterday that he will be in Seattle next week attending the convention of the Pacific Coast Association of Collegiate Registrars. Mr. West is president of the association.

Mr. West stated that he plans to leave Saturday, but will go first to the University of California at Berkeley, to attend a meeting concerning junior college and state college relations. He will deliver a talk on "Credit for Terminal Work" at the Berkeley meeting.

From Berkeley, Mr. West will go by train to Seattle, and will arrive in time to attend the opening sessions of the convention on Monday. He plans to remain in Seattle until Friday.

FACULTY ENTERS ART EXHIBIT

Works by Mrs. Gladys Vogelman, Art department, and Miss Joyce Bolton, Home Economics department, are being displayed at the Art Week exhibit, in the Civic auditorium, being sponsored by the San Jose Women's Art society.

Many San Jose State college graduates also are participating in the display in Dunne Hall at the auditorium, according to Dr. Marques E. Reitzel, head of the Art department.

Dr. Reitzel, Warren W. Faus, Milton C. Lanyon, and J. Theodore Johnson, all of the art faculty, are four of 25 Bay area artists who have been invited to exhibit their work at the Art Week exhibit of the Hayward Art association.

PLAYERS PLAN PARTY NOV. 8

The San Jose Players will hold their first get-together of the quarter tomorrow at the Lion's Den in the Alum Rock hills. The party, beginning at 8 p.m., will feature dancing, entertainment, and refreshments, announced Miss Stella Pinoris yesterday.

"Players interested in attending should contact Miss Marie Carr or me by Friday, emphasized Miss Pinoris.

She stated that those planning to go will meet on the Speech department steps at 7:30 p.m. The party is given so that students may become better acquainted among themselves and with the faculty members.

DON'T GIVE UP! IT'S COMING

"Don't despair, the VA has not forgotten!"

That is the ray of hope offered by Mrs. Mary Sullivan of the Veterans' Affairs office in room 16 to hundreds of vets on campus who are sweating out arrival of overdue subsistence checks from the Veterans' Administration.

Mrs. Sullivan went on to point out that the picture with regard to subsistence has brightened somewhat in recent days. She indicated that a number of men have reported the arrival of checks, and others have received notification of delay with a promise of the "long green" on or about the tenth of this month.

"Although the situation is much better than we expected, we wish to make it clear that our prediction that a large number of checks will be from 60 to 90 days late still holds," commented Mrs. Sullivan.

Campus Societies Attend Tea

Alpha Chi Omega, national social sorority, gave a tea for representatives of the eight campus societies recently at the home of Mrs. George Martin in Los Gatos, according to dean of women, Miss Helen Dimmick.

Invited to the tea were the societies' officers, advisers, presidents of the societies' alumnae, president of Inter-Society, Ezma Rucker, and Miss Dimmick.

Alpha Omicron Pi entertained local society representatives at tea at the Sainte Claire this week.

'Conserve Energy' Theme of Exhibit

Ways to conserve energy in doing household tasks may be learned from the exhibit in the Home Economics building this week.

Helpful hints in pushing, reaching, and bending are on display. Also, the right and wrong way to wash dishes is shown. Examples of posture when working are shown in the exhibit by cleverly arranged paper figures.

The display, prepared by Doris Lutz, Home Economics student, asks the questions, "Can you run a home, or does a home run you?"

SCIENCE BUILDING SITS ON MUDPIE

"The science building virtually is sitting on a huge mudpie," Dr. Carl D. Duncan, professor of botany and entomology, revealed this week.

Washington Square, better known as the campus, was formerly a large swamp. The area was filled in to make a park and, later, school grounds.

That's why elm trees usually die on the campus. Dr. Duncan explained that they only have about four feet of firm top soil in which to root.

"When the science building was constructed, the piles sank for twelve feet before they reached solid ground," the entomology professor stated. "Originally the plans called for a three story building, but there just wasn't support enough for that."

"The engineers worried every time a pile was driven that the huge mass of mud would push up through the bottom of the swimming pool in the Men's Gym."

Thinking back a little more, Dr. Duncan recalled the days when San Antonio street reached to the gates of the Inner quad.

"You know, I used to arrive at 10 a.m. every morning and find a parking place right at the quad gate," he said.

GRAD FAR AFIELD

Lieutenant Amelia Dorothy Amizich, graduate of San Jose State college, has recently been assigned to work in Stuttgart, Germany, according to Major Emma Voge, Chief of the Physical Therapy Branch, United States Army.

Lt. Amizich, now an officer in the Regular Army in the Physical Therapist Section of the Women's Medical Specialist Corps, received her Bachelor of Arts degree in Physical education from here in 1941.

ARNACOMA ELECTS NEW PRESIDENT

Margaret (Peg) Ansbro, commercial accounting major from Oakdale, is the newly-elected president of Arnacoma, ex-service-women's organization. She succeeds Bea Dooley.

"All women veterans on campus are invited to attend the meeting Monday," says Miss Ansbro. "Plans for forming a marching or singing platoon will be discussed."

Members of the group voted to serve at the snack counter once a month at the Servicemen's Hut. Some of the group also have been assisting Spartan Knights with the student directory, according to Miss Ansbro.

Meetings are held every other Monday at 92 North Fifth St. at 7 p.m.

Pause That Refreshes?

Unofficial spokesmen for the chemistry storeroom firmly denied today that they intend to keep coca cola or other soft drinks in the green "coke" box which was recently installed in the west corridor of the science building.

FACULTY WOMEN HAVE INVITATION

The women members of the San Jose State college faculty are cordially invited to attend a reception and dinner for Dr. Althea Kratz Hottel, Thursday, November 13, 6:30 p.m. at the Sainte Claire hotel, announces Dean of Women Helen Dimmick.

Dr. Hottel is National President of the American Association of University Women and Dean of Women at the University of Pennsylvania. She will speak on "The Role of A.A.U.W. Today."

Reservations for the dinner are $2.83 each and should be made by calling Mrs. Jack Anderson, Columbia 8279 before Tuesday, November 11.

CONSUMER PREFERENCE

Through the thousands of store buyers who are the patrons of the apparel production centers of the nation comes the voice of the clothes-consuming public.

The choices of the retailers, transmitted to the manufacturing markets through millions of miles of their own and of salesmen's journeys, are originally the tastes of the wearers.

Designing room and production plan are ever-sensitive to the requirements of the public.

ON THE SPORTS TRAIL
By TOM ROWEN

The mail brings an interesting letter from Sam Lugonja, former Spartan athlete. Sam is head football coach at Porterville High school this year.

Walt Meyer, football player and boxer, is line coach at the same school. Walt went to the PCI last year but lost in the final match.

Lugonja's team has lost only one game. The defeat was by Tulare High school. He defeated Fresno Tech, 12-6. We mention Fresno Tech because Hans Weidenhofer, former San Jose football player and wrestler, is coaching the Raisin City team.

ADIOS GRIDDERS
With the close of this week, we are switching over to covering the basketball squad. Paul Von Hafften, our very capable assistant for the past six weeks, will finish up the current football season here on the mainland.

Thanks to the coaching staff for their help during the past few weeks. Best of luck for the remaining three games here in the United States. Have a good trip to the Islands.

RED-HEADED MARVEL
Who was that red-headed football player Wednesday night at the rally?

He was terrific. Coach Bill Hubbard had better measure that guy for a football suit.

WATER POLO
There is a good water polo game scheduled for Saturday afternoon. The Gold and White natators battle Cal Poly. The match starts at 4 p.m.

We hear San Jose has some of the best water polo players on the Pacific Coast. Ed Rudloff is a terrific player and so is Captain Tudor Bogart.

John Gothberg, our water polo expert, tells us that Rudloff and Bogart have a good chance of making the team that will go to the 1948 Olympics in London.

CASABA TALK
A good evening of entertainment is lined up Wednesday night in the Men's gym when Bunny Levitt will be on hand to give a demonstration of his basketball shooting ability.

He will present pictures and answer questions concerning rules and technicalities of basketball. The program starts at 8 p.m. and everybody is invited.

LOCALS
Mary Hooton, instructor in the Women's Physical Education department, received her AB degree from San Jose State in 1946. She then traveled east to secure her MA degree from Columbia University.

Miss Hooton can be remembered for her many activities while a student here on campus. Besides holding the office of treasurer of the Student Body, she was a member of Spartan Spears, Tau Gamma, and Black Masque.

NATATORS PLAY WINGED 'O' AND CAL POLY ON WEEKEND

By JOHN GOTHBERG
Tonight San Jose's terrific water polo team will meet the Olympic Club in the latter's pool while tomorrow they battle Cal Poly in the local pool at 4 p.m. The freshmen will clash with the Winged "O" J-V's at 7 tonight while the varsity game is scheduled for 8 o'clock.

The Clubbers are riding the crest of an undefeated season. In an early season engagement, the San Francisco boys defeated the local team, 13-8. Except for this one defeat and a 5-4 loss at the hands of Cal, the Spartans have had a very successful season. In a return engagement with the Bears, San Jose won, 14-7. The Gold and White boys have also trounced Stanford and Cal Aggies twice. Tomorrow afternoon at 3 the Spartan mermen will meet Cal Poly for the first time. This is the first year that the San Luis Obispo school has produced a water polo team.

Walker believes that if his men are successful in downing the Winged "O," Cal Poly, and Stanford again next week, that his team will have an excellent chance of winning the PAA meet on Nov. 18. The splashers have their eyes focused on this meet, and the gold medal that will go to the top team.

This fall the San Jose natators have some of the finest players on the Pacific Coast. Ed Rudloff is considered by sports experts to be one of the cleverest forwards in the game. Captain Tudor Bogart is equally exceptional at the guard position. These two men may very likely be chosen to represent this nation in the 1948 Olympics in London.

Tonight Coach Walker will start the following men against the Winged "O" varsity: Dick Bartels, goalie; Otis Keeler, Ed Rudloff, and "Red" Foley, at forwards; Tudor Bogart, Howard Ruweler, and Dave Thompson at the guard positions.

The freshmen team has been improving with each game and may dump the J-V's tonight. Wally Hofman, star forward for the Frosh, will probably be missing from the lineup tonight because of a broken nose. Bill Scofield will replace him should he be unable to play.

The remainder of the lineup for the Spartlets will be as follows: Pete Wolff at goalie; Bob Santos and Lloyd Kidder at the other forwards; Fred Hanssen, Tom Daly, and "Mal" Maloney at the guard posts.

In their first game with the Olympic Club, the freshmen were defeated, 9-6. From their last two games, the San Jose boys have given indication that they are a much improved team.

THETA MU SIGMA DEFEATS APO

Theta Mu Sigma defeated Alpha Pi Omega, 8-6, Tuesday afternoon at the Rosegardens football field in the rain. The Blue and White boys have two victories credited to their victory in the Inter-Frat football league. Bill Collins tallied the Theta Mu Sigma touchdown in the first quarter when he intercepted a pass and ran 50 yards for a score. APO made their score in the first period on a pass and a lateral. The touchdown play was good for 35 yards. Bill Casper threw the pass and was on the receiving end of the lateral to plant his feet in diagonal stripe territory.

Lloyd Caldwell caught an APO player in the end zone to score the safety for Theta Mu Sigma.

DEAN ATTENDS CONFAB AT USC

Dean of Men Paul M. Pitman entrained for Los Angeles Wednesday, where he will attend a conference of deans of men, according to Miss Bernice Van Gundy, secretary to the dean.

The session will be held on the University of Southern California campus, and is scheduled to run November 6, 7, and 8. Deans of men representing colleges and universities from all over the West Coast will be in attendance at the annual gathering.

Dean Pitman is expected to be back at San Jose State Monday morning, said Miss Van Gundy.

Directories Soon To Be Available

Three thousand copies of the student directory should be ready for distribution Monday, November 24, according to Howard Brose and Dale Nelson, co-chairmen of the Spartan Knights' Student Directory committee.

"The directories will be printed on offset-lithograph presses," states Brose, "and they should be back from the printer's within two weeks."

Brose claimed the main difficulty in typing up the list of student names and addresses was the undecipherable handwriting which was used on registration booklets.

Four separate checks are being made on illegible cards. The card file in the Dean of Women's office was utilized as a means of obtaining the correct information, and doubtful cards are being compared with those on file with the registrar, Physical Education departments, Business office, and the college library.

"We expect to have a few mistakes, though. If anyone's statistics are wrong, they should try to remember to print more carefully next year and console themselves with the thought of having their name correctly spelled in next year's directory," Brose concludes.

YULE CARNIVAL TO BE HELD

Plans for the coming gala Christmas carnival will be discussed at Monday's meeting of Alpha Gamma, art club, according to Lee Stronach, chairman for the event.

The meeting will be held in room A1 of the Art wing at 7:00 p.m.

Also on the agenda for the special meeting is election of a vice-president, announces President Ed Kincaid.

FRAT PLAYS HOST TO 16 NEW MEMBERS

Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity, will serve as host to 16 new members Sunday at 4 p.m. in the DeAnza hotel, reports George Gunter, publicity chairman.

The prospective members are part of the national J. Edgar Hoover pledge class and are sponsored by the FBI head.

NEWMAN CLUB MOVING DAY

Newman Club's "Merry-Go-Round," a dressy sport dance, is slated for Friday, November 14, at Newman Hall, 79 S. 5th St., according to publicity chairman Jack Golden.

Bids for the dance, to be held from nine until one, will be $1.20 per couple.
